

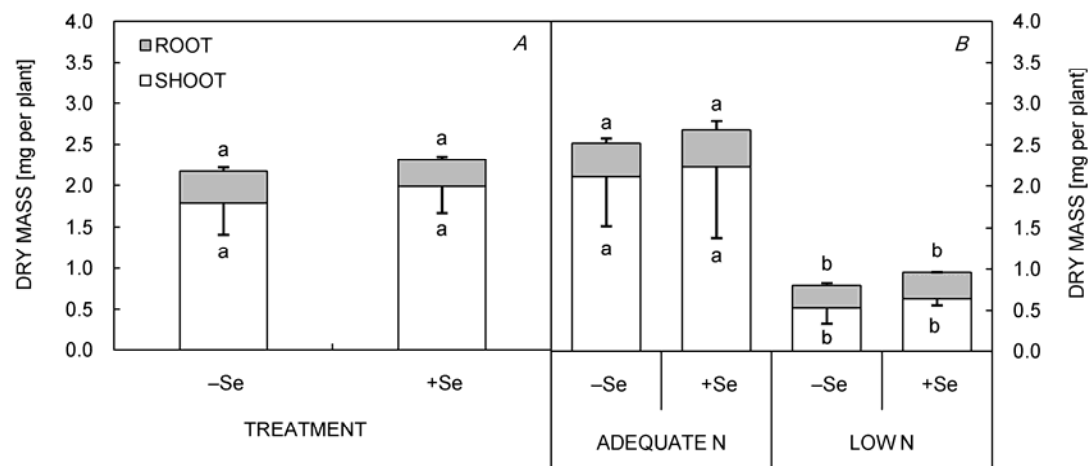

Fig. 1S. Dry mass of shoot and roots in oilseed rape plants grown without (-Se) or with 20 μ M Se as Na_2SeO_4 (+Se) (A). Dry mass of plants grown at adequate or low N supply without or with Se (B). Data are means $\pm$ SD ($n = 4$). Bars within each plant organ indicated by the same letter were not statistically significant ($p < 0.05$).